

CELEBRATE CUBAN CULTURE AT THE CONNOLLY LIBRARY

CONNOLLY BRANCH, BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

433 Centre Street, Jamaica Plain 617-522-1960 www.bpl.org

AUTHOR EVENT: CATHRYN GRIFFITH

Author-photographer Cathryn Griffith discusses her book Havana Revisited: An Architectural Heritage, which juxtaposes vintage postcards of Havana's historic buildings with photographs of what they look like today. This event includes a 20-minute film and book signing.

Monday, January 30, 6:30 p.m.

FILM SCREENING: ¡SALUD!

Today, Cubans are among the world's healthiest people, despite their island's poverty. According to the BBC, they have "one of the world's best health systems." This film spans three continents to look at the philosophy placing Cuba on the map in the worldwide movement to make health care a global birthright.
