230 The Fenway, Boston MA 02115

SMFA Library room B303.

Enter through the main SMFA Library doors on the 3rd floor of the B Building. The SMFA Library is open to the public. Visitors will need to sign in at the guard's desk when they enter the building. If there's a class using the room where our zines are held, just stop by the circulation desk for help. Otherwise, visitors are welcome to use the tables and chairs next to the zine collection, or bring zines into our main room, where couches and more seating are available. We also have a seed library!

Semester Hours: M-Th: 9-9, F 9-6, Sa-Su: 1-6

These zines circulate with a Tufts ID. | Donations?

Hey, did you know?

Any person living in Massachusetts can get a free library card from BOTH the Boston Public Library & the Minuteman Library Network (Framingham, Somerville, Watertown, and 35+ more libraries). Get a card, and use it!

The academic libraries included in this passport can be accessed by the public. Check out the instructions under their entries. If you have questions, visit their websites/contact the libraries. Thanks for supporting zine makers, zine culture, and zine libraries!

This April, you're invited to check out as many zine libraries in the Greater Boston area as you can! Complete your Zine Library Crawl passport for the opportunity to win prizes, including free goodies from the participating libraries, zine making supplies and physical zines from area zine makers!

Ask a library staff member for a sticker (or just mark off the corresponding circle) when you've visited!

If you want to be entered into a raffle to win prizes at the end of the month, fill out our short google form:

Schlesinger Library, Harvard, est. ~2008

guides.library.harvard.edu/schlesinger_zines

3 James Street, Cambridge, MA 02138

📍 2nd floor reading room

M-F: 10-4:45. Check in at the front desk when you arrive, and present an ID.

The Schlesinger has over 1,000 zines in its collection, and we are always adding more. The zines cover a wide range of topics aligned with the library's collecting areas from women's health and hygiene to intersectional feminism to riot grrrl culture to sexuality to cooking, in a diverse array of forms that include comics, collage, essays, and how-to guides.
