

Remote Access via eCard

Can't make it into a BPL location to register for a library card?

You can sign up online for an eCard that will give you remote access to our eCollections, such as eBooks, audiobooks, movies, TV, digital magazines, music, and databases.

eCards are available to anyone who lives, works, or goes to school in Massachusetts.

Register for an eCard: bpl.org/ecard eCards expire every 2 years, but are renewable online. Upgrade your eCard to a BPL card with borrowing privileges by visiting any BPL location with a picture ID and proof of residency.

Register for an eCard, record your number below, then cut on the dotted line to keep your eCard information someplace handy.

What can the BPL do for you?

Digitization

Through the Library for the Commonwealth (LFC), the Boston Public Library (BPL) is able to offer free digitization services to cultural institutions across Massachusetts. These treasures are then shared online in partnership with Digital Commonwealth for all to enjoy.

Streaming and Downloadable Content

You can use your eCard to access the BPL's eCollections. Read, listen, and watch by downloading media to your personal devices or stream online.

Online Resources

The BPL offers over 100 databases and online resources. Massachusetts Residents can access nearly all of these remotely with their BPL card or eCard.
